anyone.	comparable	unto Him	And (there) is not

No one Equal to Him

- There is no one comparable to Him.
- Everything, living or non-living is a created by Allah.
- Therefore we cannot even imagine or compare Him to anything.

No one shares His power.

- In fact, it is a sin to compare Allah to anything or anyone.
- Making images, idols or pictures of Allah is forbidden.
- Worshipping those pictures is Shirk, such a huge sin, that it will take us out of Islam, and Allah will be very angry with us and will never forgive us.

Practice last Verse 3 times;

أَحَدٌ (4)	كُفُؤًا	لَّهِ	وَلَمْ يَكُنْ

anyone.	comparable	unto Him	And (there) is not

Recite it with Love

- If our brother or father or uncle is a big cricketer or a president or big man, we love to talk about him and tell everyone else.
- Allah is my Creator and He is the Best, #1, in all respects. I should therefore love to talk about Him; love to remember him again and again. I should therefore love to recite Surah Al-Ikhlaas.
- If I love to talk about Allah, I should love to obey Him too.

Love this Surah! A Story

- There was an Imam who recited this Surah in every Salah. Prophet Muhammad pbuh was informed about this. The Prophet therefore, questioned the imam about it, the imam replied that he loved this Surah very much. Prophet pbuh said that the love of this Surah would take him to Jannah.
- See the importance of this Surah! Recite it not because it is small, but because it is very important. If we love this Surah, Allah will also love us and will give us Paradise.

Whenever we recite this (or any other Surah)

In daily Salah or any other time,
make sure to recite it:

- To make Allah happy – He is watching;
- With understanding (what we recite); and
- With feelings
